

ARENAVIRUSES

- Argentinean Hemorrhagic Fever (HF)
- Bolivian HF
- Lymphocytic Choriomeningitis
- Venezuelan HF
- Caused by viruses obtained from rodent excreta
 - Can acquire from food contaminated with rodent urine, feces, or saliva
- Symptoms
 - Fever, headache, eye inflammation and pain, hemorrhage, and shock
 - Severe symptoms and death possible
- Countermeasures → Avoid rodent-infested areas
 - Maintain proper field hygiene